Colleen Papek, President of Milan Laser Hair Removal

Before joining the team, Papek spent 25 years in sales and operations at multi-unit companies. At Milan Laser, her experience has been instrumental in leading the company's explosive growth and nationwide expansion efforts, expanding its team to more than 1,600 employees and 230+ clinics in 28 states.

"I joined Milan almost five years ago because I was so excited about the vision and business model," said Colleen Papek, President of Milan Laser. "Being part of all our milestones over the years and seeing our team grow and evolve has been incredible. I'm beyond honored to be leading this company and helping our team achieve even greater success."

As president, Papek will work with all departments to foster alignment around Milan Laser's strategy and vision to be the number one laser hair removal company in the world. Working with senior leadership, Papek will define company priorities and direction as they continue to grow the business and explore new market opportunities. One of Papek's first duties will be to help find a standout individual to fill her previous Chief Operating Officer position.
